The proposed extensions are considered to be permitted development and does not contravene any of the planning conditions set out within the Town and Country Planning Act (General Permitted Development) Order 1995 for domestic extensions :

- The extensions will not exceed 50% of the land around the house and
- the proposed extension is to be constructed wholly within the legal site boundary to the application site
- Materials will be similar in appearance to those of the existing house
- Maximum eaves height on the boundary will be no higher than 3m
