

The noise mitigation from the build material seem to address the potential noise for the flat form the gym and therefore agree to the works to be carried out in accordance to what they have submitted.