

The following site photos display the locations of bird/bat boxes installed on the site. These boxes are marked with red circles for easy identification.

