

Thank you for re-consulting GMAAS on this application.

GMAAS originally replied to this application on 29/01/2025. The changes to the proposed layout and the supporting information have no bearing on our original advice. I am satisfied that the revised proposals do not threaten the known or suspected archaeological heritage.

On this basis there is no reason to seek to impose any archaeological requirements upon the applicant.