

there is the concern about the increase in vehicular traffic on a route designated for use on foot, bike and horse by the public. Without a private right of access, use by motorised vehicles is a criminal offence.