

72745

JP-S2: Carbon and Energy

In relation to the point regarding part I Building Regulations below

Development should comply with the 2022 part L Building regulations.

The development should also include an EV chargepoint for each house (in line with Part S of Buildings Regs and where appropriate and practical).

As this proposal is for a vehicle storage yard and does not include any housing, or any structures, this would not apply.