

The management plan is about the construction.

The environmental management plan deals with noise, vibration and dust. Mitigation is described and best practice used.

Developer needs to abide by the construction environmental management plan

Commercial Team

Bury Council | Department for Operations | Public Protection