

Bats

An updated bat survey has been provided during the peak survey season. No evidence of bats roosting was recorded. I am now satisfied that it is very unlikely that the development will have a negative impact on the local bat population. No further information or measures are required.

Nesting Birds

My previous recommendations still apply.

Contributing to and Enhancing the Natural Environment

My previous recommendations still apply.

David Dutton

Ecologist