Description of Proposed Works

Please describe the proposed works

I would like to instal a 3m high fence at the back of my property where my garden backs onto the school carpark. My house and the neighbours on both sides are at a much higher ground level than the back of my garden and school. The top of a 3 meter fence would be equal to or less than 1 meter above ground level for the residential houses. My garden is on a very steep slope and was separated into three levels before I purchased it. The top level is decking, the middle and bottom is grass, however, the bottom level is sloped at an unusable angle (see photos of proposed area). I would like to level this with decking which would be at the current ground level of the highest point and 1m above ground level at the lowest point. The 3 meter fence would be from ground level at the lowest point and would screen off below the decking and then remain 2m above decking hight. The decking and fence will be built from timber. This would mean we can use the bottom section of our garden, this will not affect any residential neighbours, It will not block light from the school or any residential property. The three meter fence would mean that when standing on the deck we cannot see into the school grounds and vice versa allowing for some privacy in our already very exposed garden.

Has the work already been started without consent?

Biodiversity net gain

Householder developments are currently exempt from biodiversity net gain requirements.

However, this exemption still needs to be confirmed by the applicant or agent when making a householder planning permission application.

☒ I/we confirm that the proposed development, if granted permission, would be exempt from the general biodiversity gain condition.

Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended) sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'general biodiversity gain condition'.

However, the 'general biodiversity gain condition' does not apply in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of Article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015 (as amended).

Site Visit

Can the site be seen from a public road, public footpath, bridleway or other public land?

- ☐ Yes
☒ No

If the planning authority needs to make an appointment to carry out a site visit, whom should they contact?

- ☐ The agent

Pre-application Advice

Has assistance or prior advice been sought from the local authority about this application?

- ☐ Yes
☒ No

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

- (a) a member of staff
(b) an elected member
(c) related to a member of staff
(d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?

- ☐ Yes
☒ No

Ownership Certificates and Agricultural Land Declaration

Certificates under Article 14 - Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015 (as amended)
