Application for Permission in Principle

Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended)
Town and Country Planning (Permission in Principle) Order 2017 (as amended)

Current legislative restrictions mean that proposals must: include at least 1, and no more than 9 dwellings; create less than 1,000 square metres of floorspace; and be on a site of less than 1 hectare. There are further restrictions on development defined as 'householder', 'habitat' (relating to protected sites), and 'Schedule 1/Schedule 2' (relating to environmental impact assessment).

6. Authority Employee / Member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent. For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the local planning authority.
