

70959

Thanks for consulting GMEU on this application. Has a bat survey been carried out? If so please can you send it through to me – I can't see it on the website. If not a Preliminary Roost Assessment for bat (plus any additional activity surveys based on the results of the PRA) would be recommended prior to determination of the application. This needs to be undertaken by an appropriately qualified ecologist following best practice guidance.