

Updated GMEU recommendation following roof alteration -

The amended roof design is acceptable. No further bat information is required on bats.

I would however note that a visual assessment could occur at this time of year and could therefore could potentially rule out the need to amend the roof design. It may also however fail to rule out the need for further surveys which could not occur at this time of year.

My other recommendation of the 14th December still apply.

Ecologist

Planning

Planning and Transportation

Place