

The proposed changes are as follows;

1. We have increased the width of the feature window on the front elevation to accommodate two additional glazed panels.
2. We have changed the roof construction on the approved rear extension from a flat roof to a pitched roof that corresponds/continues the profile of the existing roof to the dwelling.