

Good morning.

This property is currently a licensed HMO and we were aware of their intention to apply for permission to increase to 9. It is suitable for this purpose, from our perspective and provides adequate shared space.

- The FRA for the property would need to be accurately updated to reflect the increase in occupancy
- The applicant will need to apply to vary their license to include the additional units.

Kind regards

Danielle