

Access will be via 'Killy Lane' which carries a new bridleway route. The road on which the bridleway runs is wide and has been constructed with an additional stoned-up width behind bollards for pedestrians, cyclists and horses to use if motorised traffic requires it. The proposed development will benefit from this scenario and I have no objections to the application.