

I can not see any issues with the amended metric and biodiversity gain plan. The previously provided HMMP is still applicable. I therefore have no objection to the discharge of the statutory biodiversity gain condition.