

Application No. 71867

Environmental Health have assessed the noise and vibration parts of the application and agree in principle to the assessments. The monitoring sites and methodology were agreed with the contractor to carry out the assessments. Environmental health will need to be consulted with future planning applications specific to site, type of industry/commercial classes and residential development.

regards

Unit Manager, Commercial Team