

Conservation Area

Further to my email below and in the light of the submitted heritage assessment I consider the building proposed to be demolished does not meet the necessary assessment criteria for it to be considered to be a HDHA and does not contribute to any significant group value of the farmstead as a whole. As such I have no objection to its demolition.

Kind Regards

Mark Kilby PGDip (Building Conservation and Adaptation)

Conservation Officer