CONCLUSION

The principle of the development is acceptable in principle. Thereafter, the above response raises matters that will need to be taken into consideration in adapting the proposal before the submission of an application.

In responding to your enquiry, the Council has made every effort to ensure that the advice given is as accurate as possible having regard to the details that you have provided. However, this advice is given by an officer of the Council and does not constitute a formal response or decision of the Council with regards to any future planning application(s).

Whilst it may be a material consideration, this response cannot be held to bind the Council in its validation or formal determination of any subsequent application. Please be advised that if an application is subsequently submitted which fails to take on board advice given by officers, then the Council may refuse it without further discussion with the applicant or their agent.

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

- (a) a member of staff
- (b) an elected member
- (c) related to a member of staff
- (d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.
