Proposal: Two storey extension at front; Part single/Part two storey extension at side; Single storey extension at rear and Alteration to existing access and parking.

Location: 49 Scholes Lane, Prestwich, Manchester, M25 0AY

Description

The application relates to a red brick two storey semi-detached house on a residential road of similar styled properties. The house has a main pedestrian and vehicular access onto the access road to The Residences, the gated residential development is situated to the rear. The main garden is situated behind a high hedge along Scholes Lane around the corner towards the residences.

The application follows a recently approved scheme (68567) to extend the property in the form of a two storey extension across the east elevation and single/two storey extension across the north elevation.

The revised scheme proposes to add a small single storey extension to the south elevation, projecting out 2m into the garden area and running across 7.6m. It would have a shallow, mono-pitched roof and finished in brick to match the house.

Issues and Analysis

The following report includes analysis of the merits of the application against the relevant policies of both the National Planning Policy Framework (NPPF) and the adopted Bury Unitary Development Plan (UDP) together with other relevant material planning considerations. The policies of the UDP that have been used to assess this application are considered to be in accordance with the NPPF and as such are material planning considerations. For simplicity, just the UDP Policy will be referred to in the report, unless there is a particular matter to highlight arising from the NPPF where it would otherwise be specifically mentioned.

Equality Act 2010: All planning applications are considered in light of the Equality Act 2010 and associated Public Sector Equality Duty, where the Council is required to have due regard for:

The elimination of discrimination, harassment and victimisation;

The advancement of equality of opportunity between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and person who do not share it;

The fostering of good relations between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and person who do not share it; which applies to people from the protected equality groups.

Human Rights: All planning applications are considered against the provisions of the Human Rights Act 1998.

Under Article 6 the applicants (and those third parties who have made representations) have the right to a fair hearing and to this end full consideration will be given to their comments.

Article 8 and Protocol 1 of the First Article confer a right to respect private and family life and a right to the protection of property, ie peaceful enjoyment of one's possessions which could include a person's home, and other land and business assets.

In taking account of the Council policy as set out in the Bury Unitary Development Plan 1997 and all material planning considerations, it is concluded on balance that the rights conferred upon the applicant/ objectors/ residents/ other interested party by Article 8 and Article 1 of the First Protocol may be interfered with, since such interference is in accordance with the law and is justified in the public interest. Any restriction of these rights posed by refusal/ approval of the application is legitimate since it is proportionate to the wider benefits of such a decision, is based upon the merits of the proposal, and falls within the margin of discretion afforded to the Council under the Town & Country Planning Acts.

The Crime and Disorder Act 1998 imposes (without prejudice to any other obligation imposed on it) a duty upon the Council to exercise its functions and have due regard to the likely effect of the exercise of its functions on, and the need to do all that it reasonably can to prevent crime and disorder in its area. In so doing and on making planning decisions under the Town and Country Planning Acts, the material Planning considerations shall have due regard to the provisions of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 and its implications in the exercise of its functions.

Visual amenity - The additional single storey extension on the south side, facing into the garden, would not appear incongruous or out of keeping with the main house. It would not be viewed from the roadside due to the high hedge around the boundary. The proposal is considered to be acceptable and complies with UDP Policy H2/3 and guidance.

Residential amenity - The additional single storey extension would extend 2m along the shared boundary with No.47 on the south side. The extension is modest and would not have a significantly detrimental impact on the neighbour's amenity and it is noted that this neighbour has not objected. Complies with UDP Policy H2/3 and guidance with regard to residential amenity.

Parking and access - The previously approved access would not be amended and remains as approved.

Statement in accordance with Article 35(2) Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) (Amendment) Order 2015

DELEGATED REPORT

The Local Planning Authority worked positively and proactively with the applicant to identify various solutions during the application process to ensure that the proposal comprised sustainable development and would improve the economic, social and environmental conditions of the area and would accord with the development plan. These were incorporated into the scheme and/or have been secured by planning condition. The Local Planning Authority has therefore implemented the requirement in Paragraph 38 of the National Planning Policy Framework.
