[illegible]

The second floor plan shows a large open area on the left, possibly a lounge or common area, with a circular arrangement of chairs. To the right of this area is a long corridor or service area with several small rooms or stalls. The right side of the floor is occupied by a large, complex structure that appears to be a multi-level or multi-sectioned facility, possibly a library or a specialized office space, with various rooms and corridors.
