Grounds for Application

Information about the existing use(s)

Please explain why you consider the existing or last use of the land is lawful, or why you consider that any existing buildings, which it is proposed to alter or extend are lawful

The property is currently in lawful residential use as a single private dwellinghouse (Use Class C3). It has been continuously occupied as a private residence and there has been no material change of use.

The existing building was constructed pursuant to planning permission (or, if older, predates the requirement for planning permission) and has been used as a dwellinghouse for a period exceeding four years. As such, the use is lawful under Section 171B of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.

There are no known breaches of planning control relating to the existing use or the original construction of the property. Therefore, the existing residential use and the building to be extended are considered lawful.

Please list the supporting documentary evidence (such as a planning permission) which accompanies this application

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

- (a) a member of staff
(b) an elected member
(c) related to a member of staff

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.
