

Response from the Information Governance and Risk Strategic Advisor to the submitted Data Protection Impact Assessment (DPIA) for applications 68983 & 68985

As the DPIA advises no processing of personal data, I see no reason for the initiative not to proceed. The continuous live stream, with recording functionality disabled is an added safeguard that supports compliance to the data protection legislation and avoids having to respond to Subject Access Requests.