

The supporting information submitted to seek removal of this condition has stated that they will fill the open end of the existing building with close boarded Yorkshire boarding as mitigation. Nothing has been submitted to suggest that this mitigation would be sufficient in terms of noise.