

Thank you for your consultation on the above permission in principle application at Castle Hill Road, Bury.

There are no known ecological constraints with granting permission in principle for the proposals. Any ecological issues including biodiversity net gain will be dealt at the technical details stage.