

No objection to the proposal subject to a condition for the proposed external facing brickwork to match the existing dwelling house, roof covering to be of natural slate to match the existing and details of the design and appearance of the new front door which should be of a traditional design and appearance and not contemporary as indicated on the submitted plan. The door can be of a composite material.