Biodiversity net gain

Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'biodiversity gain condition' requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value.

This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015)*.

Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm:

☒ It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply

*A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building.

Positive feed back was provided by Amanda Uhunmwagho from Bury Council, following a site visit and brief conversation over email dated 17/09/24, email below:

Hi Padraic,

Thanks for your email. You must be psychic. I'm just looking at this one now. I have had a chat with my line manager this morning and am writing it up now.

There really isn't too much to discuss in our opinion. The only thing my manager pointed out was if you could reduce the height of the building by about 200mm then it would be preferable, but given that the next door neighbour has an outbuilding at the rear corner of their garden next to the shared boundary, and there is a good amount of planting along that boundary which belongs to the neighbour the height might be ok.

The design and proposed materials of the building would be considered in keeping with the main dwelling and the proposed changes to the garden areas wouldn't have any detrimental impact on visual or residential amenity in the area, especially as this area is not readily visible from neighbouring sites. As the building would be over 2.5m high it would require a planning application, which we would welcome.

The application would come to me so all being well as long as we have everything in order from the start I should be able to get the report over to the Development Manager for their consideration very soon after the 21 day neighbour consultation period ends. If anything on the plans change prior to submitting the planning application please feel free to email me anything to look over. Other than that I look forward to receiving the planning application and will close this pre-app enquiry, unless you have anything else you need to ask at this stage. Thank you very much and have a lovely day.

Kind regards,
Amanda

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

- (a) a member of staff
- (b) an elected member
- (c) related to a member of staff
- (d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?

☐ Yes

☒ No

Ownership Certificates and Agricultural Land Declaration

Certificates under Article 14 - Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015 (as amended)

Please answer the following questions to determine which Certificate of Ownership you need to complete: A, B, C or D.

Is the applicant the sole owner of all the land to which this application relates; and has the applicant been the sole owner for more than 21 days?

☒ Yes

☐ No

Is any of the land to which the application relates part of an Agricultural Holding?

☐ Yes

☒ No

Certificate Of Ownership - Certificate A

I certify/The applicant certifies that on the day 21 days before the date of this application nobody except myself/ the applicant was the owner* of any part of the land or building to which the application relates, and that none of the land to which the application relates is, or is part of, an agricultural holding

* "owner" is a person with a freehold interest or leasehold interest with at least 7 years left to run.

 "agricultural holding" has the meaning given by reference to the definition of "agricultural tenant" in section 65(8) of the Act.

NOTE: You should sign Certificate B, C or D, as appropriate, if you are the sole owner of the land or building to which the application relates but the land is, or is part of, an agricultural holding.
