Details of the pre-application advice received

I have been advised that you will either need to submit a new householder application or a variation of approved plans.

The window is not a non-material amendment as advised below.

This was to clarify if you submitted a new application.

The window to the side is to a bedroom so would need to be assessed. Also habitable room windows in side elevations so close to a boundary are usually not supported, but they might be if they are obscurely glazed and top opening only.
